

Arson Suspected in Latest Pipeline Fire – $2 million damage

October 19, 2016

KDSM-TV, Des Moines, Iowa relates an incident in Reasnor, Iowa:

Authorities suspect arson in the latest burning of heavy equipment being used in the construction of the four-state Dakota Access pipeline in central Iowa.

The Jasper County Sheriff's Office says the blaze late Saturday near Reasnor, Iowa, caused about $2 million damage to an excavator and three bulldozers.

Go to this link for the full story.

Comments by OSFR historian Jim Tatum.

-A river is like a life: once taken, it cannot be brought back-
